Y Plans Open House

Preview Of Family Activities Slated

A two-day open house next Thursday and Friday nights will preview fall family activities at the Mansfield YMCA-YWCA, it was announced Saturday by the YM membership committee chairman, Dr. Albert P. Barbone.

On those two nights the two associations will be open from 4 to 9 p. m. to show Mansfield area families the variety of activities included in this year's program, Dr. Barbone said.

OFFER PROGRAM

Visitors will see classes in operation in all the departments of the YM and YW and will be permitted to participate in a number of the activities, such as archery, rifle shooting and gym classes.

Friday the swimming pool will be open to the public for the first "family swim", one of the regular activities included in the fall program.

An outdoor sidewalk cafe will be set up at the Park Avenue West entrance to serve coffee and doughnuts to visitors and two orchestras has been engaged to play in the Y parking lot. Thursday night the Senior High School dance band under the direction of Norman Gaines will play from 7 to 9 p. m. and Friday night the music will be by the Riley Norris Combo.
