

Welcome Wagon Dance Saturday; Public Invited

At Monday night's meeting of the Welcome Wagon Club, held at the Ohio Edison Co., members were reminded of the "Night in Camelot" dance to be held this Saturday, March 21, at the Elks Club.

Open to the public, the dance is scheduled from 10 p. m. to 1 a. m. with tickets priced at $3.50 per couple and proceeds going to the Richland County Society for Crippled Children.

Riley Norris will provide music for the dance following a cocktail hour scheduled from 9 to 10.

Mrs. George Swank, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. David Brubaker, ways and means chairman, announced that orders are being taken for all-occasion cards and address labels.

A cooking demonstration was given by the electric company staff and the foods prepared were served as refreshments.

Mrs. Robert Heichel, monthly chairman, conducted the awarding of 20 door prizes.
