Arriving At Friday Night Dancing Party

HIGHLIGHTING THE HOLIDAY WEEK, the Holly Ball, sponsored each year by the 20th Century Club, attracted a large crowd to the ballroom of the Elks Club Friday night. Riley Norris and his band played from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. The ballroom was a bowser of greenery, including holly, mistletoe, evergreens and tinsel. Mrs. Richard Hall, chairman of the 20th Century Club's ways and means committee, was in charge of arrangements. Dancing were:

NUPTIAL HIGH MASS W.

Saturday in the Church of the Naming of Miss Kathleen Avern M The Rev. Fr. Urbin Wiggins read and was celebrant of the mass.

White pompon chrysanthemums decorated the altar and family pews were marked with white bows. Preceding the ceremony, a half-hour of organ music was presented by Mrs. Arthur Vogelmeier with the mass sung by a girl's choir.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Magers, St. Louisville RFD 1, and Mr. Potts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Osbert Potts, St. Louisville. Miss Mary Marquis, cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Audrey Jenkens and Miss Karen Boyd.

Each of the bride's attendants wore a street-length gown of navy blue brocaded taffeta with draped necklines, fitted bodices, and long sleeves. They carried bouquets of red and white variegated carnations. Serving as best man was Gerald Magers, brother of the bride, and ushers included Daniel and Michael Magers, also brothers of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with a long bodice, which had a scalloped neckline, and long sleeves that ended in points over the hands. Tiers of ruffles in the back accented the bouffant skirt and a crown of sequins held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

At a reception in the church social rooms which followed the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a blue jersey sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue sheath with matching accessories and a red rose corsage.

A white wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, featured the decorations at
