

Band With Local Players Takes Second In Playoff

The Riley Norris Band, a 15-member dance band based in Mt. Vernon, won second place in a regional playoff competition in Dayton Friday night. The Al Cobine Band of Indianapolis which won the event, was judged third in the nation last year.

Six district winners from the Ohio-Indiana region played in the contest. The Norris band is composed of musicians from all over central Ohio, including three from Newark.

Billy McArtor, 57 Bolen St., plays tenor sax; Delbert Froelich, 196 Pierson Blvd. plays bass; and Don Hoskinson, 526 Willrich Dr., plays tenor sax.

The Norris band is scheduled to play the Newark Holly Ball on New Year's Eve at the Elks Ballroom.
